Administrator's Shoe Sale

at the Barre Shoe Company to settle the estate of the late J. M. Marean, and the one thing needed is the cold cash, and in the face of the present dull times we can only see one way to accomplish our mission and that is to offer you goods so low in price that it will prompt you to buy for present and future needs. This sale is not made for a profit maker but to turn every dollar we can into cash by February 1st, when we are to take an inventory and make a settlement. This sale will start

Wednesday Morning, Jan. 12, and Continue Until Saturday Night, Jan. 29, giving you 16 days of real bargains in footwear such as you seldom get in a large number of so-called sales. On Monday afternoon we will quote you some prices in this space when you can judge for yourself if we mean business.
